

ADVENTIST REVIEW MEDIA

March 31, 2021

To whom it may concern,

I, Andrew Daryl Gungadoo, Director of Adventist Review's Media Lab, certify that Hyve International (<https://www.hyveinternational.org/>) is a supporting ministry of the Seventh-Day Adventist Church, and has been in partnership with both the General Conference of Seventh-Day Adventists and Adventist-Laymen's Services and Industries (ASI) for the past few years.

From the General Conference, both Adventist Review and Global Missions are active participants and avid supporters of the missional entrepreneurial ethos that Hyve International continues to portray, through their yearly conferences, training seminars, consulting, business coaching & pitch competitions.

Many General Conference executives have and continue to participate in Hyve's events. Here's a small sample of previous presenters:

Ted Wilson - General Conference President
Tim Aka - Director of Investment / General Conference Treasury
Bill Knott - Chief Editor / Adventist Review
Daniel Bruneau - Director of User Experience / Adventist Review
Daryl Gungadoo - Director of the Media Lab / Adventist Review
Jared Thurman - Director of Strategy & Innovations / Adventist Review
Gary Krause - Director of Adventist Missions
Rick McEdward - President of MENA union
Sam Neves - Associate Director of Communications

I encourage your field to therefore welcome Hyve International and empower your membership to recognise and embrace concepts of faith-based entrepreneurship. This concept is one of the many aspect of Total Member Involvement.

May the Lord bless you in your leadership role over the territory and responsibility that He has entrusted to you. Maranatha !

Sincerely,

Daryl Gungadoo
